

Prop 1
Affordable Housing Bond
Vote Yes

Prop 1 would authorize $4 billion in affordable housing bonds - enough to fund 100,000 homes. California Democratic Party, labor unions, and many community groups have endorsed Prop 1. Prop 2
Homelessness Prevention Housing Bond
Vote Yes

Back in 2004, California passed an extra 1% income tax on millionaires to fund mental health services. Prop 2 would allocate some funds from that tax to authorize a $2 billion bond to fund supportive housing. California Democratic Party, labor unions, and many community groups have endorsed Prop 2.

Prop 3
Water Bond
Vote No

Prop 3 would authorize an $8.877 billion bond for water projects. While there are some good projects in the mix, most of the funding is earmarked for projects benefiting those that helped pay to get this massive barrel of pork on the ballot, including big ag and dam interests. The Sierra Club recommends a No vote. We just passed a water bond in June 2018 - let's reject Prop 3 and come back in 2020 with a better plan. The California Democratic Party did not take a position on Prop 3. https://ballotpedia.org/California_Proposition_3,_Water_Infrastructure_and_Watershed_Conservation_Bond_Initiative_

Prop 4

Children's Hospitals
Bond

Vote Yes

Prop 4 would authorize a $1.5 billion bond for children's hospital expansions and retrofits. California Democratic Party has endorsed Prop 4.

Prop 5

Property
Tax Break

Vote No

Currently, property taxes in California are based on price at time of purchase, with a below-inflation annual increase. However, when people move and buy a new home, usually they will have to pay full taxes. Currently, there are exemptions for people over 55. Realtors put Prop 5 on the ballot to expand the number of exemptions.

California Democratic Party and unions oppose Prop 5, as nearly all the benefit would go to the rich, and schools and local governments would lose up to $1 billion a year each.

Prop 6

Gas Tax
Repeal

Vote No

Prop 6 would repeal the recent 12-cent/gallon gas tax. This would remove $3-5 billion a year in transportation funding from bridges, highways, and transit.

California Democratic Party and unions oppose Prop 6.

Prop 7
Year-Round
Daylight
Savings Time
Vote Yes

Prop 7 would allow the state to extend Daylight Savings Time to be year-round, eliminating the time changes. Sunrise and sunset would be later in the winter than currently.

California Democratic Party endorses Prop 7.

Prop 8
Limits Dialysis
Clinic Profit to 15%

Vote
Yes

Currently, private clinics provide most kidney dialysis services. Prop 8 would limit their profits to 15%, and require any additional money to go back into services or lowered prices. Labor unions want clinics to address problems of understaffing. The California Democratic Party also endorses Prop 8.

Prop 10

Allows
Expansion of Rent Control

Vote Yes

Prop 10 would repeal Costa-Hawkins, allowing cities to pass stronger forms of rent control, such as vacancy control (no rent increases between tenants), rent control on single family houses, and rent control on buildings built after 1995.

The California Democratic Party, tenant and community groups, and unions endorse Prop 10. East Bay for Everyone also endorses Prop 10, YIMBY Action was divided among Yes and No and did not reach a consensus.

Prop 11

Ambulance
Workers
On-Call
During Breaks

Vote No

Prop 11, funded by private ambulance corporation AMR, would give ambulance companies an exemption from labor laws, allowing them to require staff to be on call during their lunch breaks. What could possibly go wrong? Unions and the California Democratic Party oppose Prop 11.

Prop 12
More Space
for Farm
Animals

Vote Yes

Prop 12 sets minimum cage sizes for chickens, cows, and pigs. The Humane Society and the California Democratic Party endorse Prop 12. Meat corporations oppose it, PETA also opposes it because they don't think it goes far enough and are concerned it might give consumers a false sense that things are OK.
